

TCS Digital Test – English Section

Sample Questions

Notice
© 2018 Tata Consultancy Services Limited This is a controlled document. Unauthorized access, copying, replication or usage for a purpose other than for which it is intended, are prohibited.

SAMPLE 1

Instruction: Decide on the best way of ordering the five sentences so as to make a meaningful paragraph. Choose the option which you think has the correct order.

- A But no one in Europe had any clue about which vessels led into a tumour or affected organ and which led out.
- B Medicine dominated by Galen's humoral theory considered all diseases as pathological accumulations of the four cardinal fluids, and bleeding to remove the culprit humor was the standard cure.
- C Successful bleeding had to be at specific locations: far from the disease for prevention, and to cure an established disease it had to be from vessels near the site.
- D A 16th-century anatomy student Vesalius, set out to create an anatomical map that could serve as a guide for surgery that was largely a matter of haphazard hacking then.

Options

- 1 ADCB 2 ACBD 3 BDCA 4 DBCA

SAMPLE 2

Instruction: Choose the option which will fill the blank and make a meaningful sentence.

- 1 Plastic was seen as a boon for society in its early days as it democratised material consumption. It allowed designers to fabricate _____.
- A cheap replicas of fine goods that attracted the poor
 - B fake luxury goods that attracted the poor towards consumption
 - C luxury goods that were suitable for the poor owing to their low cost
 - D fine replicas of luxury goods so cheaply that even the poor could afford them
- 2 The warranty period for this product has expired. Even if it had not expired, we _____.
- A would have been unable to deal with this problem as the warranty does not bind us
 - B could not have established that this problem is due to a manufacturing defect at this late date
 - C would not have been required to deal with this condition outside the warranty period and the specified conditions
 - D could not have provided free repair service as this problem is not specified under manufacturer's liabilities

SAMPLE 3

Instruction: Choose the option that provides the meaning of the underlined word in the given context

1 This NGO has chosen to work exclusively with the urban homeless on matters of health.

Options

- 1 Secretly
- 2 Only

- 3 Sincerely
- 4 Voluntarily